TERMS OF ADMISSION.*

The requisites for admission to the Freshman Class are, testimonials of a good moral character, a thorough acquaintance with English, Latin and Greek Grammar (Hadley's Greek and Harkness' Latin, preferred,), four books of Cæsar's Commentaries, the Catiline of Sallust, six books of the Æneid of Virgil, six Orations of Cicero, Latin Composition as far as Part Third of Harkness' Introduction, three books of Xenophon's Anabasis or an equivalent, Ancient and Modern Geography, Arithmetic, and Algebra to Equations of the Second Degree in Davies' Bourdon, It is recommended to students in preparation, to read attentively some manual of Greek and Roman History.

Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the preparatory studies, and in the various studies to which the class they propose to enter have attended. Those who are admitted from other Colleges must present certificates of regular dismission. In all cases testimonials of good moral character are required.

The stated times for examinations are Tuesday before Commencement, and the first day of the first term.

SELECT COURSE.

Individuals of suitable age and attainments will be allowed to pursue a Partial Course, for any length of time not less than one year, selecting such studies as they may desire. They will be required to recite with the regular College Classes at least twice a day, and to continue through the term any study commenced. They will have access to the Libraries and Lectures, and on leaving the Institution will be entitled to a certificate of their respective acquirements in the studies on which they have passed an examination.

* Teachers are reminded that these terms, substantially, will be insisted on.

EXHIBITION.

There is an Exhibition of the Senior Class during the first term, in which honorary parts, consisting of Greek, Latin, French, and English versions, are assigned to members of the Junior Class, whose rank is such as to entitle them to the distinction.

PRIZE DECLAMATIONS.

There is a Prize Declamation of the Sophomore Class at the end of the Spring Term, and of the Junior Class, speaking original articles, at the end of the Summer Term. At those declamations, in the last academic year, the prizes were awarded as follows:

Junior Declamation: First Prize to Frederic Howard Eveleth. Second Prize to Charles Henry Cumston.

Sophomore Declamation: First Prize to Walter Forrest Marston. Second Prize to Willis Bronson Matthews.

The Prize for the best Composition at the Senior Exhibition, was awarded to Abraham Willard Jackson.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

All the students are required to attend some place of public worship on the Sabbath; each student or his parent or guardian being permitted to select for attendance either of the places of public worship in the village.

EXAMINATIONS.

There is a public examination of all the Classes at the close of each term. In the Mathematical and most of the English branches the student is required to exhibit his attainments, in any part of the term's study assigned to him, without being questioned, and to conduct the discussion himself. The final examination of the Senior Class occurs five weeks before Commencement.

TERM BILLS.

There is kept an accurate account of each student's absences from all exercises upon which his attendance is required; also, of his general conduct and scholarship. This account, in connection with the regular term bill, embracing the charge for Tuition, Room-rent, use of Library, and Incidentals, is sent to the student's parent or guardian at the close of each term.

COMMENCEMENT AND VACATIONS.

Commencement is on the first Wednesday of August. The first vacation is of four weeks, from Commencement; the second is of eight, from the second Wednesday of December; the third is of ten days, at the close of the second term. The first term is of fifteen weeks; the second and third terms, of twelve weeks each. The terms are so arranged as to give a long vacation in the Winter, which may be profitably occupied in teaching, by those whose circumstances require it. Students are allowed to leave for their schools the Wednesday before the first Monday in December.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, Room-rent and use of Library,	$41.00	$41.00
Incidental Expenses, . . .	5.00	5.00
Board from $2.50 to $3.50 per week, .	97.50	136.50
Fuel, Washing and Lights, . .	15.00	20.00
Amount, . . .	$148.50	$202.50

The sum necessary for books, clothing and travelling expenses, will vary according to circumstances and the habits of the student.

College term bills are to be paid at the commencement of the succeeding term. Persons admitted to advance standing, if not from another College, are required to pay back tuition; but no matriculation fee is exacted in any case.

GYMNASIUM.

A building for this purpose is now being completed, which will be furnished with suitable apparatus for exercise and physical training.

AID TO STUDENTS.

Besides the opportunity for teaching two or three months in the winter, the Education Societies aid those preparing for the Christian Ministry, and there are several scholarships, the benefit of which may be enjoyed by meritorious students who need the aid. And, in addition, the institution offers the following

Honorary Aid (Prizes).

1. The first term bill cancelled for the student best fitted for college; also all subsequent bills through his course, in case he needs the aid and maintains a high rank in his class.

2. The first term bill cancelled for the best of not less than six from the same school. Also the second bill, and the first and second bills in each year, on the same condition as above.

3. The first term bill cancelled for the best of not less than four from the same school; and the first bill in each subsequent year, on the same conditions as above.

But no school shall be entitled to more than one prize; nor shall any one receive a prize who is not well prepared for college.

These prizes, for the present year, have been awarded as follows:

First Prize to George Henry Sturdy, fitted by Mr. W. H. Lambert at the Augusta High School.

Second Prize to George Martin Smith, fitted by Mr. J. H. Hanson, at the Classical Institute.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS.

1. Any deficiencies in the studies preparatory for college must be made up by the beginning of the second term.

2. Students are considered absent at the beginning of a term, until they present themselves at their recitations, and will be fined for such absence, unless they obtain an excuse for the same from the President.

3. Students declared deficient in any study, at the end of a term, must make up such deficiency by the opening of the next term.

4. No student can be examined with his class, who has not recited with them at least one-third of the time.

5. No student who is unexamined in the studies of any two terms, can proceed with his class till he has been examined on one of these terms.

6. Examinations on deficiences must always take place on the first day of the term.

7. No student is allowed to be absent a term, nor to leave town in term time, without permission from the President.

8. Term bills must be paid promptly as they accrue; otherwise bonds must be given to the Treasurer. And even with bonds, no student will be allowed to proceed with his class, who has more than two bills unpaid.

9. Irregularity in attendance at recitations will be noticed, first, by an admonition from the teacher; then, if continued, from the President; and if not corrected on admonition, the student will be suspended for the term, or discharged from the college altogether, as the case may seem to demand.

10. Any student, changing his room, without permission from the President, will be subject to a fine, or such other penalty as the Faculty may think suited to the case.

11. If any student shall fail to hand his composition to the proper officer at the time appointed for it to be read, he will not be allowed to proceed with his class till it is handed in.

12. All excuses for absences from college exercises are to be presented in writing to the officer superintending the exercises, always before Wednesday evening in each week.

13. No student is allowed to board at a public house.

Waterville Classical Institute.

This Institution, under the charge of Mr. J. H. Hanson, is recommended as possessing superior advantages as a Classical School. The course of study is arranged with reference to the requirements for admission to the University.

Rates of tuition, from $5.00 to $6.00.

EXHIBITION.

There is an Exhibition of the Senior Class during the first term, in which honorary parts, consisting of Greek, Latin, French and English versions are assigned to members of the Junior Class, whose rank is such as to entitle them to the distinction.

PRIZE DECLAMATIONS.

There is a Prize Declamation of the Sophomore Class at the end of the Spring Term, and of the Junior Class, speaking original articles, at the end of the Summer Term. At those declamations, in the last academic year, the prizes were awarded as follows:

Junior Declamation: First Prize to Willis Bronson Mathews. Second Prize to Walter Forrest Marston.

Sophomore Declamation: First Prize to John Day Smith. Second Prize to Eugene Kincaid Dunbar.

The Prize for the best Composition at the Senior Exhibition of 1869, was awarded to Ephraim Wood Norwood; at the Exhibition of 1870, to Frederic Howard Eveleth.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

All the students are required to attend some place of public worship on the Sabbath; each student or his parent or guardian being permitted to select for attendance either of the places of public worship in the village.

EXAMINATIONS.

There is a public examination of all the Classes at the close of each term. In the Mathematical and most of the English branches the student is required to exhibit his attainments, in any part of the term's study assigned to him, without being questioned, and to conduct the discussion himself. The final examination of the Senior Class occurs five weeks before Commencement.

TERM BILLS.

There is kept an accurate account of each student's absences from all exercises upon which his attendance is required; also, of his general conduct and scholarship. This account, in connection with the regular term bill, embracing the charge for Tuition, Room-rent, use of Library and Incidentals, is sent to the student's parent or guardian at the close of each term.

COMMENCEMENT AND VACATIONS.

Commencement is on the first Wednesday of August. The first vacation is of four weeks, from Commencement; the second is of eight, from the second Wednesday of December; the third is of ten days, at the close of the second term. The first term is of fifteen weeks; the second and third terms, of twelve weeks each. The terms are so arranged as to give a long vacation in the Winter, which may be profitably employed in teaching, by those whose circumstances require it. Students are allowed to leave for their schools the Wednesday before the first Monday in December.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, Room-rent and use of Library	$41 00	$41 00
Incidental Expenses	5 00	5 00
Board from $2 50 to $3 50 per week	97 50	136 50
Fuel, Washing and Lights	15 00	20 00
Amount	$148 50	$202 50

The sum necessary for books, clothing and traveling expenses, will vary according to circumstances and the habits of the student.

College term bills are to be paid at the commencement of the succeeding term. Persons admitted to advance standing, if not from another College, are required to pay back tuition; but no matriculation fee is exacted in any case.

AID TO STUDENTS.

Besides the opportunity for teaching two or three months in the winter, the Education Societies aid those preparing for the Christian Ministry, and there are several scholarships, the benefit of which may be enjoyed by meritorious students who need the aid. And, in addition, the institution offers the following

Honorary Aid (Prizes).

1. The first term bill cancelled for the student best fitted for college; also all subsequent bills through his course, in case he needs the aid and maintains a high rank in his class.

2. The first term bill cancelled for the best of not less than six from the same school. Also the second bill, and the first and second bills in each year, on the same condition as above.

3. The first term bill cancelled for the best of not less than four from the same school; and the first bill in each subsequent year, on the same conditions as above.

But no school shall be entitled to more than one prize; nor shall any one receive a prize who is not well prepared for college.

The Prize for the best preparation for college, of not less than six from the same school, has been awarded this year to William Hunt Kelly, from the Classical Institute, Mr. J. H. Hanson, Principal.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS.

1. Any deficiencies in the studies preparatory for college must be made up by the beginning of the second term.

2. Students are considered absent at the beginning of a term, until they present themselves at their recitations, and will be fined for such absence, unless they obtain an excuse for the same from the President.

3. Students declared deficient in any study, at the end of a term, must make up such deficiency by the opening of the next term.

4. No student can be examined with his class, who has not recited with them at least one-third of the time.

5. No student who is unexamined in the studies of any two terms, can proceed with his class till he has been examined on one of these terms.

6. Examinations on deficiencies must always take place on the first day of the term.

7. No student is allowed to be absent a term, nor to leave town in term time, without permission from the President.

8. Term bills must be paid promptly as they accrue; otherwise bonds must be given to the Treasurer. And even with bonds, no student will be allowed to proceed with his class, who has more than two bills unpaid.

9. Irregularity in attendance at recitations will be noticed, first, by an admonition from the teacher; then, if continued, from the President; and if not corrected on admonition, the student will be suspended for the term, or discharged from the college altogether, as the case may seem to demand.

10. Any student, changing his room, without permission from the President, will be subject to a fine, or such other penalty as the Faculty may think suited to the case.

11. If any student shall fail to hand his composition to the proper officer at the time appointed for it to be read, he will not be allowed to proceed with his class till it is handed in.

12. All excuses for absences from college exercises are to be presented in writing to the officer superintending the exercises, always before Wednesday evening in each week.

13. No student is allowed to board at a public house.
